Description

Which restaurant furniture to choose?

In restaurant halls, the furniture does not stop at chairs and tables. A great help is provided by the dining room furniture, i.e. those cabinets in which to place condiments, cutlery, dishes, tablecloths and cloth or paper napkins.

The cabinets are generally made of wood, light or dark depending on the model. They can be transportable cabinets with wheels or fixed, with one or more doors and one or more drawers.

Some cabinets include upper shelves, shelves that add even more space in height to make it easier for waiters to arrange everything they need.
