Description

Fruit displays for shops

Fruit displays are structures suitable for placing fruit and vegetable crates in shops selling fresh fruit and vegetables.

Fruit displays have a stainless steel structure, with shelves of different heights depending on the size of the model.

Supermarket Fruit Displays

Within Ristoattrezzature's catalogue you can find different types of fruit and vegetable displays, suitable for both fruit and vegetable shops and supermarkets with fruit and vegetable departments. All models are divided into:

- extendable displays with narrow depth (30 cm);
- displays with single reclining shelf;
- displays with several reclining shelves, made of steel or polypropylene slats.
